ARTICLE I
NAME

The name of the organization shall be The Arkansas Cancer Registrars Association.

ARTICLE II
PURPOSE

The purpose of this Association shall be:

1. To promote research and education in Cancer Registry and to be of greater service to the cancer patient and the physician.
2. To raise the level of knowledge and performance of Cancer Registrars through continuing education.
3. To disseminate information to members of this Association regarding current activities, research and trends in the cancer field.
4. To initiate and/or participate in programs to improve and standardize the compiling of Cancer Registry information.
5. To be a non-profit organization and not a trade union or collective bargaining agency.

ARTICLE III
MEMBERSHIP

SECTION I. Classification of Membership

- A. Active: An active member shall be a Certified Tumor Registrar or a person whose primary occupation is involved with any or all facets of tumor registry work. For example, hospital based registries, central registries, consultants, and vendor support personnel. An active member in good standing shall be entitled to all membership privileges including the right to vote, hold office, or chair a committee.
- B. Associate: An associate member shall be any person interested in the purpose of ArCRA who does not meet the qualifications of active membership. An associate member shall not vote, hold office, or chair a committee but may be appointed to serve on a committee.
- C. Student: A student member shall be a person who is enrolled in a college level curriculum and is interested in the purpose of ArCRA but does not meet the qualifications for active membership. A student member shall be eligible for this classification of membership for no more than five consecutive years. A student member shall not vote, hold office, or chair a committee, but may by special appointment serve on a committee.
- D. Honorary Life Membership: Any person who has made a significant contribution to the profession of the cancer registry and/or tumor board administration or has rendered distinguished service in the profession or its related fields may be elected to honorary membership by a unanimous vote of the members present and voting in a duly announced business meeting of the membership.
 1. Honorary members shall be exempt from dues and shall possess none of the rights and privileges of other classes of membership. An honorary member shall not hold any other class of membership in ArCRA.
- E. Charter Membership: Persons signing adoption of these bylaws on April 23, 1975, and all who joined the association on or before the date of the first annual meeting shall be considered charter members, whether active or associate status is preferred. Charter members shall be exempt from paying annual association dues.

SECTION II: Application for Membership

Application for membership shall be submitted in writing, provide the necessary information for the membership files, and be accompanied by payment for the appropriate dues. New applicants shall agree to uphold the association's professional code of conduct and to observe the bylaws.

SECTION III: Annual Membership Dues

- A. The dues for all membership classifications shall be recommended by the Executive Committee and approved by the membership at any annual business meeting.
- B. Dues to cover the period January 1 through December 31 and shall be due on January 1 of each year. A late fee shall be assessed if dues are not paid by February 15 of each year as designated on the membership application form.

SECTION IV: Forfeiture

If the dues for the current year are not received within sixty (60) days from January 1, membership shall be forfeited.

SECTION V: Reinstatement

Former members whose membership status is forfeited for non-payment of dues shall submit a new application for membership with any reinstatement fee set by the Executive Committee, and shall be approved by the Executive Committee before reinstatement is granted. If disapproved, the dues (and any reinstatement fee) shall be refunded.

SECTION VI: Censure, Suspension, and Expulsion

Any member who violates the bylaws or code of ethics of ArCRA may be censured, expelled, or suspended from the membership by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Executive Committee after a hearing. Provided said member has been given a copy of the charged preferred together with sixty (60) days notice in writing of the time and place of the hearing. Service of notice and a copy of the charges may be made either by receipted personal delivery or by registered letter, return receipt requested, mailed to such member's last known address. An appeal regarding the action of the Executive Committee may be taken to the membership at the annual business meeting in which event the decision shall be a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the members present and voting and such decision shall be final.
